If Metter Can . . .

IF WE SHOULD just up and say, "Why sure, Metter is a better community than Statesboro. Why? Metter is on the hill. They get things done. They're civic-minded and work together," the local Chamber of Commerce would be down on us like a ton of bricks.

The local Jaycees would scream to high heavens, "Why, you low-life! Scores of 'Where Nature Smiles and Progress Has the Right-of-Way' singers would think we're off our trolley.

But, listen, citizens of Statesboro and Bulloch County:

On September 27 when the American Red Cross Bloodmobile came to Statesboro to collect the blood on pledges made in a recent drive only 64 citizens reported to the Community Center to offer their pint of blood. Twelve of these were rejected for various reasons and 52 persons donated that many pints of blood.

Recently, when the American Red Cross Bloodmobile went to Metter, they ran short of containers in which to collect the blood. One hundred and eleven pints of precious life-giving blood were donated by the citizens of Metter and Candler county. And 30 persons who volunteered to give their blood were turned away because the Bloodmobile operators had not figured on such an overwhelming response.

Our Bulloch County Hospital has used 100 pints of blood during the period in which the county's citizens were giving 52 pints. This means that the community which our hospital serves owes somebody 48 pints of blood . . .

Could be that we owe it to the citizens of Metter and Candler!

The Bloodmobile was here yesterday to collect more blood. They wanted 100 pints. We do not know if the visit was successful.

As we write this we wonder if this community is really as community-minded as we would have ourselves believe. On Tuesday of this week the County Health Department wound up a campaign to test 16,500 citizens of this city and county for tuberculosis and venereal diseases. With the last report in on last Wednesday night, only four days to go, less than one-half that number had shown enough interest in the welfare of this city and community (only 8,154 of the 16,500 seemed interested in their own personal welfare), to report to a testing station and have an x-ray made and their blood tested.

We don't get it. With the progress of our community based upon the health and happiness of its citizens, with the health and happiness of our neighboring communities so inter-related, we must realize that our future is tied up in cooperation in all such movements as these two—the Bloodmobile and the VD-TB testing.

It's too late now to do anything about it.

And to say "If Metter can . . ." would be to bring the wrath of the lip-serving citizenry about our head.

But we still have faith in this community. Where we come up short on two things, we go long on something else.

So, we can still sing "Where Nature Smiles and Progress Has the Right-of-Way," with the drum section playing the fortissimo!

The Editor's Uneasy Chair

TRAMP! TRAMP! TRAMP!
Ratta-tap-tap, ratta-tap, ratta-tap-tap-tap.
A-boom . . . a-boom . . . a-boom-boom!
Boomp-pah . . . boomp-pah . . . boomp-pah . . . boomp-pah!

And marching they go.
With the football season over, the Blue Devil band goes marching on.

And on Saturday of this week they will go to Savannah and play in the annual Christmas parade.

The parade is sponsored by the Merchants Council of the Savannah Chamber of Commerce.

Guyton McLendon, director, and his Blue Devil musicians take such parades in their stride, but never lightly.

For, come springtime, they will be competing in the district and state music festivals, where precision marching, stirring music, and high school marching bands are judged on the performance of their bands.

Our community should be tremendously proud of this band organization. Caring new experience weekly, the Blue Devil band is fast developing into one of the fine bands in the state.

We should be very proud of it. It pays off in intangible dividends—good will for Statesboro.

And, come Tuesday, we have an opportunity to show it.

The Blue Devil band, together with the Phi Mu honorary music fraternity of the college, is sponsoring the DeLand High School auditorium. Go out and take your kids. Hear this excellent band, and know what your own school band can do.

Statesboro is a better community.

Albin Eber Gives Thanks to Rotary

Members of the Statesboro Rotary Club are pleased with the record of their German student at the Georgia Teachers College. Dr. Marvin S. Pittman announced on Monday at the club meeting that young Eber is an "A" student.

The club voted to provide Eber with funds to continue his studies to secure his degree at the college. He can do this in three quarters.

Eber came here just a year ago under sponsorship of the Statesboro Rotary.

In the December issue of "The Rotarian," the club's magazine, young Eber writes his thanks as follows:

MY THANKS TO ROTARY
By ALBIN EBER

Who could have ever imagined it? On September 17, 1944, I was a German Coast Guardsman at Brest, France, trying to blast the American Air Force out of the sky. Today, I am a student and a close friend of one of those same American airmen.

How did this miracle come to pass? With the fall of France I was captured and sent with three of my comrades to a prisoner-of-war camp in Western France.

After seven months it was my good fortune to be sent, along with thousands of others, in a gigantic convoy to America.

Of course, I was the uniform of a P.O.W., but, strangely, I never once heard an epithet applied to me or any of my comrades because we had been enemies in war. This did not mean the Americans were too soft or sentimental. They were, rather, blessed with a wonderful spirit of sportsmanship that has taught the entire population how to deal with a vanquished foe.

When I finally was liberated and returned to my home in July, 1946, I naturally was glad the war was behind me, glad to be back with my own family in my native Bavaria. I was accepted as a normal citizen of the German people.

While there I met Dr. Marvin S. Pittman, who was president of the Statesboro Teachers College, and who had been sent by the American Army of Occupation as an educational expert to advise on matters of teacher education in the colleges of Bavaria. Because I could speak English and had served as an interpreter while in prison camps, I was one of the fortunate students chosen for a conference with him in our school.

I learned that Dr. Pittman had a son who had been a P.O.W. at Stalag Luft 3 in Germany. And even more surprising, Dr. Pittman had himself been rearred near Granada, Mississippi, where I had been a P.O.W. These two facts were enough to give us an immediate feeling of kinship.

When our conference ended, I assumed that I would never see nor hear from Dr. Pittman again. Then one day, months later, one of my fellow students rushed into my room with a message for me to report at once. Imagine, if you can, my surprise, my delight, my measureless joy when I learned that the Rotary Club of Statesboro, Georgia, were offering me a scholarship for one year to attend Georgia Teachers College—with all my expenses paid!

I feared that it was not really true, that I was having some wonderful dream, and that I would awake to find it only a dream. But it was true!

So, here I am in America, a student at Georgia Teachers College—the beneficiary of unbelievable hospitality and friendship.

In all of this I have profited from two great ideals: international goodwill, and democracy in action. Ever since the close of the war, America as a nation has demonstrated these two great ideals. Rotary is now implementing these ideals through its program of scholarships for young men and women from foreign countries.

At the last meeting of the KHC four new pledges were initiated. These were W. L. Cason, Charles Cason, Sonny Wright and Charles Clements. The library committee completed their project last week and the library is now fast filling up with good books and sports magazines.

At the meeting this week plans will be completed for the Christmas party. The Christmas project of gathering toys for other children is off to a good start and anyone who has used toys for their children for this project are asked to call 4083 and a member of the club will pick them up. The club is open on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons from 3 until 5 p.m. for the members to work on their projects.

Congratulations TO THE WINNERS ON THEIR WELL EARNED VICTORY!

An outstanding array of Reports of Progress—all of excellent quality—made the judging most difficult in the 1949 Champion Home Town Contest. All factors, projects, accomplishments in the Reports were carefully considered, studied, weighed by five impartial, distinguished judges. Their selections are listed above—six prize winners, twelve honorable mentions, and eighteen "certificates of achievement."

But, citation or none, ALL towns in the Contest have accomplished many things that money cannot buy! Communities in this competition have acquired a spirit of cooperation, a forthright leadership, that help to create a brighter, cleaner, richer home town for each and every citizen!

We sincerely hope that all towns will go ever forward in Georgia's Parade of Progress. And to that end we pledge our efforts and our slogan: "A Citizen Wherever We Serve."

TC 'Professors' Announce 1949-50 Basketball Schedule; Play 27 Games

Blue Devils Lose—

The Jesup line completely dominated the game and with three hard running backs to come behind them, it was only a matter of time before the bruising power would tell. It almost didn't arrive and the longer the game went on, the more those six points on the scoreboard increased in size.

For one brief spell, Statesboro looked like the power it was supposed to be. After they found they couldn't make headway on the ground, they resorted to passing, and Ashton Cassidy fired until finally he hit C. P. Claxton for the score. The kick for the extra point failed.

But in the long run, it was all-around power of the Jesup line that told the tale.

By far the outstanding players on the field were Mears and Ashton Cassidy.

Mears, besides being the big gun in the Jesup attack, was a stone wall on defense. He played guard in the line when Jesup didn't have the ball.

Cassidy just didn't have as much help as Mears. But, he stood head and shoulders above any other Statesboro player.

Coach Ben Park said after the game that he was the "finest player" he has met all season.

Statesboro's touchdown move started when Hendrix recovered a fumble on the Jesup 45 just before the first quarter ended.

Cassidy passed twice to Jack Upchurch, and although the ball was right in his hands, he couldn't hold onto it. After a pass to Claxton failed, and backfield motion had set the ball back five yards, Cassidy hit Upchurch for a first down on the Jesup 37.

A fumble that went out of bounds lost to the 43 for the Blue Devils, but a penalty moved it to the 30. Cassidy then jumped up and hit Claxton right over the middle and he went over standing up.

Jesup, meanwhile, had moved inside the Statesboro 20 twice in the first half and were ahead on penetrations at the whistle.

The third quarter found neither team doing much damage. Late in the period, Jesup drove inside Statesboro's 10, only to be halted two plays after the fourth quarter started.

Statesboro punted out to their own 49 and on the first play Tommy Blitch recovered. Statesboro moved to a first down to the Jesup 40 and Joe Ben Cassidy carried to the 37, but Albritton intercepted a pass on the next play on the 39.

Statesboro intercepted one play later when Bobby Oliff batted the ball into Upchurch's hands on the Statesboro 38. Joe Ben Cassidy made three, but a fumble lost to the 34. Statesboro kicked, and Jesup started that touchdown drive from their own 42 with four minutes left.

Left Half Blitch Polk carried to the 46, and Mears, on a pitchout, ran his own right end to the Statesboro 43 for a first down. Polk carried to the 36 for another first. Mears lost one on a reverse, and Polk got no more than that on the next play. Mears moved to the 31, then exploded through the middle to the 17. Polk carried to the 15, Mears to the 10, and Count failed to gain. Polk made it a first down to the four and Mears scooted over. His run for the extra point through the middle ended the scoring.

Joe Ben Cassidy carried the kickoff to the 33 and after falling once, Ashton Cassidy then hit Oliff for a first down to the Statesboro 44. Blitch pulled his dazzling run that was 15 yards short of glory and victory. That was the ball game.

Score by periods:
Jesup 0 0 0 7-7
Statesboro 0 6 0 0-6
Jesup scoring: Touchdowns, F. Mears. Scoring extra points, F. Mears.

Statesboro scoring: Touchdowns, Claxton.

The lineups:
Jesup: Ends—Park, Horton, Albritton; tackles—H. M. M. O. C. K. Thomas; guards—Bennet, B. Davis, E. Madray; center—H. Davis; backs—H. H. D. Madray, Polk, Mears, Counts, Smith, Hope.

Statesboro: Ends—Claxton, Blitch, Hunnicutt; tackles—Simmons, Hagan, Spencer; guards—Hendrix, Allen, Johnson; center—Price (C); backs—A. Cassidy, Upchurch, J. Cassidy, Oliff, Marsh, Nesmith.

Camilla, Hopeful, Winners in Georgia Power Co.'s Champion Home Contest

A little place called Hopeful made home and hard work pay off, and Camilla, the city that wasn't satisfied with second place, took first.

Within 12 miles of each other in northwest Georgia, Camilla and Hopeful are the two $1,000 top prize winners of the 1949 Champion Home Town Contest, sponsored by the Georgia Power Company, in which 266 communities were entered and 211 qualified for the judging by submitting progress reports. Since taking second place in the 1948 contest, civic leaders of Camilla had publicly announced their determination to be first this year. Little Hopeful, a community of 200 inhabitants served by an REA line, doesn't even appear on most Georgia maps.

Among the 12 towns that finished the contest in the group of over 1,000 population, second prize of $750 went to Toccoa and the third prize of $500 was won by Gainesville. Among the 99 small communities, Chisley was second and Nicholls third. Because of the large number of other outstanding entries, the power company mentioned the total prize money from $4,500 to $5,700 in order to give awards of $100 each to 12 towns chosen by the judges for honorable mention. These are Arlington, Dalton, Ellijah, Sylva, Sylvester, and Eastman; and Buchanan, Danielville, Fairmount, Harlem, Jasper and Ludowici. Eighteen other communities were selected to receive special Certificates of Achievement for the high quality of their civic improvement efforts. These are Brunswick, Carrollton, Cedartown, Eatonton, Louisville, Monticuma, Smyrna, Thomson and Tifton; and Alley, Ellaville, Forest Park, Funston, Lodi, Mansfield, Saint Marys, Sandy Springs, and Watkinsonville. Final judges of the contest were Raimundo de Ovie, dean emeritus of St. Philip's Cathedral in Atlanta; Dr. M. D. Mobley, state director of vocational education; Mrs. Pauline Parks Wilson, dean of home economics at the University of Georgia; Miss Susan Myrick, associate editor of the Macon Telegraph; and O. M. Jackson, vice president of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce.

The cash prizes for the six top winners will be awarded at a series of dinners in January.

County Is Short On Blood Donors

Despite the fact the Red Cross Bloodmobile on its second visit to Statesboro and Bulloch county obtained more blood than the first visit is still falling short of the 100-pint quota every two months. The Bloodmobile on its second visit secured blood from 82 volunteers which was 18 pints short of the quota. Bulloch county has been using over 50 pints of blood each month and Red Cross officials say that the county should at least contribute 50 pints each month. The officials also pointed out that the American Red Cross does not need any blood and that the blood given by volunteers is for local use and is free of any cost to the user.

On the second visit of the Bloodmobile, Congressman Prince H. Preston of the First District was first in line as a volunteer. Dr. H. B. Taylor, chairman of the county PMA committee, announced today.

"Farmers who produced cotton in 1948 are eligible to vote. Every farmer who had an interest in the cotton production, the Secretary of Agriculture has declared quotas on the 1950 crop. It is up to the farmers themselves to approve or reject them."

The referendum will be held in accordance with the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended. Marketing quotas cannot remain in effect, however, unless they are approved by two-thirds of the farmers voting.

On the same day farmers will also vote for their community committees. These committees will serve during the 1950 program year.

The polls will be open from 8:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. on Thursday, December 15. At polling places in each of the twelve militia districts in the county.

Every farmer in this county who grows cotton has direct interest in the cotton marketing quota referendum, Mr. Taylor said. "It affects every producer. Every producer, therefore, should make his decision by going to the polls and voting either for or against the quotas. It is only through wholehearted participation of the cotton growers at the polls in this referendum that we can determine exactly the way they feel about quotas on the 1950 crop."

Mrs. Wilson, a native of Bulloch county, had lived near Brooklet most of her life. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Oscar Finch and Miss Alice Wilson, both of Savannah, and Mrs. Atkins Sheffield of Palatka, Fla.; three sons, Corbet Wilson and Morgan Wilson, both of Brooklet; and Perry Wilson of Statesboro; 19 grandchildren, and 11 great grandchildren and several nieces.

Funeral services were held at the Upper Black Creek Primitive Baptist Church near Brooklet with Elder Mally Jones officiating. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Sen. George Tells FB Members Why He Believes In Farm Help

Senator Walter F. George told Georgia's largest Farm Bureau Federation bureau in annual convention here today that if the farmer cannot get reasonable income out of his efforts it will be entirely impossible to maintain a higher national income and that was the reason why he strongly believed in farm relief.

Speaking before an overflowing crowd of Bulloch County Farm Bureau members in the main auditorium of the Georgia Teachers College, the senior Senator from Georgia reviewed agricultural legislation in the National Congress from its beginning to the most recent bills.

He pointed to early land grants, later the extension service, and 1916 farm financing, vocational training, and on down to the legislation following World War I. He stated that American farmers became accustomed to producing in large quantities during the war years and it became necessary for the Federal Government to enter into the marketing as well as the production of farm products.

The senator stated that during World War II farmers contributed 125 percent of normal production with manpower and tools limited, and again at the conclusion of the war were threatened with declining prices. He declared that had it not been for the expenditures of our national treasury for the financing and sale of products our foreign trade would have been very much lower today, and added that, even today, we face great power to produce and a declining foreign market.

In discussing the 1949 farm legislation, the Senator stated that, in his opinion, under the present farm bill the total income of the American farmer for 1950 will fall at least 10 percent, and probably as much as 15 percent. He made a strong plea for 90 percent parity, and stated that American agriculture has never been prosperous since the War Between the States.

He stated the things produced by the farmer would purchase at least 90 percent of the products he must have.

The Senator closed by saying that if the economy is to be sustained, and we are to be happy, and we must have income, and that the farmer ought not be required to bear the burden alone when prices decline.

Senator George was presented by Congressman Prince H. Preston of the First District, who called the Senator "The Dean of American Statesmen."

The annual meeting of the Bulloch Bureau opened with music by the Port Gale Club, the invocation by Rev. L. C. Wimberly, and a welcome by President R. P. Mikell, who was master of ceremonies.

C. M. Cowart, secretary and treasurer, read the financial report and report of the resolutions committee. Among other resolutions adopted by the Bulloch chapter were an adequate tax program—even a sales-tax or high income tax, if necessary to support the schools and other needed service.

The resolutions also called for a campaign for remodeling homes.

THE MAN WHO CAME TO DINNER AT TC

THE BLUE RAY CHAPTER of the Order of Eastern Star will hold its annual banquet in the Masonic Hall Tuesday evening, December 13, at 6:45. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Cora DeLoach of Statesboro, or Mrs. Louise Usher at Brooklet before December 10. Reservations are one dollar. A brief business session will follow the banquet.
